RECOMMENDED ACTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

Approve the Northside Ambulance Association Potluck Dinner and Dance on May 12, 2006, as a county sponsored event for insurance reasons. The Northside Ambulance Association is having a potluck dinner at the Greeley Hill Community Hall and a dance at the Helispot in Greeley Hill. No alcohol will be provided or allowed at the dinner and dance. Due to parking constraints, the Association would like to use a Transit bus to take people from the Community Hall to the Helispot. The Association has contacted our Transit Department and received their approval for this activity with the Association agreeing to pay for the use of bus to offset fuel and driver costs.

The Northside Ambulance Association is a volunteer organization that was largely responsible for establishing the Helispot in Greeley Hill. The Association continues to maintain the Helispot and also provides scholarships to local residents and ambulance employees for emergency medical training.

There is no additional cost to the County in making this a county sponsored event, but the County will be assuming responsibility for any liability claims that may arise as a result of the event.

BACKGROUND AND HISTORY OF BOARD ACTIONS:

The Board has previously approved other events sponsored by volunteer organizations as county sponsored events for insurance reasons.

ALTERNATIVES AND CONSEQUENCES OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Do not make this a county sponsored event. The Association may not be able to hold their event due to an inability to afford adequate insurance coverage.
