EXHIBIT 1
PROJECT FINDINGS
FOR
Variance No. 2015-106

1. FINDING: There are exceptional or extraordinary circumstances or conditions applicable to the property involved, or to the intended use of the property, that do not apply generally to the property or class of use in the same zone or vicinity. (§17.120.050.A, Mariposa County Code)

EVIDENCE: Most parcels in Yosemite West are steep and all parcels are limited in size. Less than ideal building and grading solutions are often incorporated into building projects to deal with the problems associated with living in a mountain community. Lot 182 has been fully developed with a rock retaining wall. The rock theme has been carried through and incorporated into the up sweeping stairs that lead to the front of the home, which features a front deck with rock supporting columns. Creating on-site parking would not only be difficult considering the limited area and 30% up slope but would require destroying significant and extensive land improvements that have been in place for the past twenty-five (25) years.

2. FINDING: The granting of such variance will not be materially detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to the property or improvements in the zone or vicinity in which the property is located. (§17.120.050.B, Mariposa County Code)

EVIDENCE: The granting of this Variance will not be materially detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to the property or surrounding improvements. The off-site established parking area being proposed is located on an already-existing widened shoulder, which has served as roadside parking for many years. Public Works has approved the use of this area for parking for the project parcel, and has stated that the "Existing Encroachment Meets County standards". Also, many structures in Yosemite West have similar on-site parking challenges, which show the difficulty that comes with building in a mountain area. The surrounding parcels include vacant lots and developed parcels.

3. FINDING: The granting of such variance will not adversely affect the comprehensive general plan. (§17.120.050.C, Mariposa County Code)

EVIDENCE: The property is located within the Residential Land Use. The applicant is proposing residential development consistent with the land use. The Variance is a process that is permitted by county code, and state law, if appropriate as determined by special physical characteristics of the site. The granting of this Variance to continue using a previously constructed parking area will not adversely affect the General Plan if the Planning Commission finds that the individual site conditions warrant a deviation from the residential on-site transient rental parking standards.

4. FINDING: There are special circumstances applicable to the property in which the strict application of zoning ordinance regulations will deprive the property of privileges enjoyed by other property in the vicinity and under the identical zone. (§17.120.050.D, Mariposa County Code)

EVIDENCE: As stated above, a significant number of transient rentals in Yosemite West already enjoy the benefits of off-site (off-street) parking as this property has for the past 25 years. The strict application of this zoning ordinance requirement would deprive the owner of the ability to operate a transient rental, a use maintained by others in Yosemite West for several years, including the neighboring properties on Yosemite Park Way.

5. FINDING: The granting of such variance will not constitute a grant of special privilege inconsistent with the limitations upon other properties in the vicinity and zone in which such property is situated. (§17.120.050.E, Mariposa County Code)

EVIDENCE: As this property is not the only one in the immediate vicinity that faces these particular development challenges, the granting of this Variance is not a grant of special privilege. By granting this Variance, the applicants' home will be receiving privileges already enjoyed by other property owners in Yosemite West. Several homes in Yosemite West have no on-site parking and many have developed parking areas within the right-of-way or very close to it as this applicant has proposed. If other parcels do have similar circumstance then they would be have the ability to apply for a Variance to determine if deviation from the standards is appropriate.

6. FINDING: This project is categorically exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to Section 15305(a) CEQA Guidelines.

EVIDENCE: This project is a minor variance to the on-site parking standards for a transient rental. The variance does not create a new parcel and could not cause a significant effect on the environment. Based on the project proposal, there is adequate off-street parking for the use. The Public Works Department has reviewed the proposal and has stated that the "Existing Encroachment Meets County Standards"
