

MARIPOSA COUNTY RESOLUTION NO. 83-302

WHEREAS, fire protection in Mariposa County is mainly accomplished by volunteer fire companies; and,

WHEREAS, the Greeley Hill Volunteer Fire Company has worked diligently and served the community well for many years and is required and dependent upon to protect the life and property of its many citizens; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the community and members of the Greeley Hill Volunteer Fire Company have given countless hours of volunteer labor and thousands of dollars in donations to build and equip a modern fire station, provide for its maintenance and continued support; and,

WHEREAS, the volunteers train and drill diligently and have become proficient in fire suppression and life saving techniques; and,

WHEREAS, much of their fire equipment is obsolete and there is a lack of funds to upgrade the existing equipment.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors, Mariposa County, that the Board supports the Greeley Hill Volunteer Fire Company in its efforts to solicit donations to acquire Engine No. 55 from the City of Mountain View.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors will accept the generous donation of Engine No. 55 from the Honorable Members of the Mountain View City Council and the citizens of Mountain View for and in behalf of the Greeley Hill Volunteer Fire Company.
