

Resource Family Pre-Approval Training

Please join us...

Pre-Approval Training for foster parents, relative and non-related caregivers (Resource Families) is a 12 hour training, designed to prepare families for the foster and/or adoption process. Anyone with interest in becoming a foster, respite, adoptive, or kinship care provider is welcome to attend these classes.

PRE-Approval Training is a process designed to strengthen competencies required for a successful fostering, caregiving, and/or adopting experience. Participants will gain a basic understanding of the emotional, social, psychological, behavioral, and cognitive issues regarding children who have been abused or neglected and will learn appropriate discipline techniques. Each module is hours. Participants must complete all modules in order to satisfy the pre-service training requirements of being an approved caregiver.
