Re: Courthouse Sesquicentennial May-June 2004

Dear Chairman Pickard:

I have recently been contacted by a number of county residents concerning the upcoming 150th Anniversary of our historic courthouse. They are now in the process of forming a Citizen's Committee to begin the planning of this most important celebration.

In response to their request, I am asking that the Board declare the Sesquicentennial Celebration to be a County sponsored event. As part of this request, it would also be of great assistance to the Committee if the Board would appoint a representative of its choice to serve on the Committee, as well as provide some staff assistance to the Committee.

I believe, and I am sure you will agree, that we are very fortunate to have members of our community who are willing to dedicate their time and efforts to this historic event.

Please advise me or former Supervisor Frank Long, if the above is acceptable to the Board.

Sincerely,

F. Dana Walton
Presiding Judge
